Reporting to the Owner, and working alongside the executive team, you will be a key contributor to the organization's overall strategy, and accountable for the financial leadership and well-being of the business. As CFO, you will be responsible for leading a high-performing accounting and finance team, which currently consists of accounting, tax & financial reporting, financial planning and analysis, and treasury functions.

You will have experience in developing strategic capital models and a track record of dealing with sophisticated institutional grade partners. Your prior work experience may include private equity, family office, pension funds, life co, or other sophisticated investment environments.

The CFO will play an integral role in shaping PC Urban's continued acquisition and development of exceptional urban developments. As an experienced real estate executive, you will foster and maintain strong relationships with lenders, investors, and builder partners.

This is an exceptional and rare opportunity to lead an established team while taking a key strategic role alongside the Owner, and executive, in building the company. To be considered for this opportunity, forward your resume to Ash Holmes at Taylor Ryan via ash@taylorryan.com.
